

Governor Gray Davis
State of California

California Environmental Protection Agency
Border Affairs Unit

California / Baja California
Industrial Wastewater Monitoring,
Pretreatment and Minimization Program
Needs Assessment

Winston H. Hickox Agency Secretary

Nancy H. Sutley
Deputy Secretary for Policy and Intergovernmental Relations

Ricardo Martinez
Assistant Secretary for Border Affairs

California Environmental Protection Agency
1001 I Street
Sacramento, California 95814

February, 2002

Prepared by R & G Associates

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Purpose of the Report.....	2
United States and Mexican Government Environmental Organizations	2
Mexican Federal Institutions	4
State of Baja California Institutions	4
Bi-National Organizations	5
United States Federal Institutions	6
State of California Institutions	7
Industrial Dischargers in the Three Baja California Cities.....	13
Mexicali	13
Tecate	15
Tijuana	16
Types of Industrial Pollutants.....	18
Mexicali	18
Tecate	18
Tijuana	18
Points of Discharge and Receiving Waters	19
Mexicali	19
Tecate	20
Tijuana	20
An Industrial Wastewater Pretreatment Program Strategy	21
Siting of Monitoring Stations.....	24
Tijuana	25
Tecate.....	25
Mexicali	25
Industrial Wastewater Worker Training	26
Current and Potential Resources for Training, Funding and Material	27
Training Opportunities	29
Resources Needed to Monitor and Analyze Industrial Wastewater.....	31
Sampling Equipment Needs.....	32
Laboratory Equipment Needs.....	32
Sampling and Analysis Needs	33
Conclusions.....	34
Recommendations.....	35
Appendices
Appendix A – Agreements of Cooperation between California and México	43
Appendix B – Agreement of Cooperation between California and Baja California For an Industrial Wastewater Monitoring and Pretreatment Program	63
Appendix C – Glossary of Acronyms	71